

Indian Rim Asian University Games Code of Behaviour

As at 2.8.07

1. What is the IRAUG Code of Behaviour?

- 1.1 This Code sets out the types of behaviour that will not be acceptable during an IRAUG event and the consequences for such behaviour occurring.
- 1.2 This Code is established to ensure that the event is of the highest possible standard, whether during or outside of competition.
- 1.3 This Code supports IRAUG's desire to encourage and promote excellent sportsmanship and appropriate standards of behaviour, including fair play on and off the field.
- 1.4 This Code is not intended to restrict or hinder person's having fun and participating in a competitive manner in the event.
- 1.5 It is important to note that this Code may apply in addition to any Code or other disciplinary requirements of the person's university or sport governing body.

2 Who does the Code Apply to?

- 2.1 This Code applies to:
 - (a) all persons competing in the event
 - (b) all persons officially appointed to any team or individual competing in the event, such as coaches, managers and health professionals
 - (c) all officials appointed by IRAUG, including umpires, referees etc.
 - (d) all employees or agents of IRAUG, including members of the IRAUG Steering and Working Committees and all IRAUG volunteers; collectively referred to as 'persons' in this Code.

3 When does this Code Apply?

- 3.1 The Code applies from the time of the commencement of the event on day 1 to the conclusion of organised activities on the last day including:
 - (a) during games and competitions in the event
 - (b) all official and unofficial social functions of, or associated with, the event.

4 What Behaviour is in Breach of this Code?

- 4.1 Any person who does, or is involved in, any of the following types of behaviour shall be in breach of the Code:
 - (a) consuming alcohol unless in an approved area, in line with relevant liquor licensing regulations.
 - (b) being unduly intoxicated at any event Venue or official and unofficial social functions of, or associated with, the event.
 - (c) breaching the IRAUG Doping Policy
 - (d) using any illegal drug during the event
 - (e) failing to comply with a reasonable direction of an event Official
 - (f) harassing any other person
 - (g) acting in an unlawful manner
 - (h) acting in any other manner which brings the event or IRAUG (including any employee, official, volunteer or agent of such organisations) into disrepute.

5 What Happens if this Code is Breached?

- 5.1 If any IRAUG official, representative or agent receives information which they consider may be in breach of this Code, IRAUG shall:
 - (a) investigate the alleged breach, and if satisfied that a breach may have occurred, refer the matter to a hearing, under clause 6.
 - (b) The hearing will be conducted by the IRAUG Disciplinary Committee.

6 How are Hearings Conducted?

- 6.1 Upon the steps in clause 5.1 being satisfied, IRAUG will:
 - (a) give written notice to the person stating:
 - (i) the nature and details of the alleged breach
 - (ii) the date, time and place for a hearing
 - (iii) the person's right to representation
 - (iv) the composition of the Disciplinary Committee
 - (v) copy of this Code

- (b) give written notice to the person's university stating the details in (a) above
- (c) appoint a Disciplinary Committee to determine the matter within 24 hours of giving notice (a) above.
- 6.2 In addition to the steps in clause 6.1, if the IRAUG Games Manager considers the alleged breach serious, it may suspend or ban the person from further participation in the event, until the determination of the matter by the Disciplinary Committee. The matter may also be referred to the police at this time, if required.
- 6.3 At the hearing, the Disciplinary Committee will determine:
 - (a) whether the person has breached this Code, as alleged in the notice (sent in clause 6.1(a)); and
 - (b) if so, what sanction, if any, shall apply
- 6.4 The Disciplinary Committee may determine the hearing as it considers fit, and with as little formality and technicality and as quickly as proper consideration of the matter permits.
- 6.5 The onus is on IRAUG to prove that the alleged breach of this Code occurred.
- 6.6 The Disciplinary Committee shall give its decision as soon as possible after the completion of the hearing. It is not required to give reasons or record its decision in writing, but may do so if it is deemed necessary or appropriate

7 What Penalties Can be Imposed?

- 7.1 If the Disciplinary Committee is satisfied the person did breach the Code it may impose any one or more of the following penalties:
 - (a) suspend the person from the next game or fixture in the event in which s/he is due to compete
 - (b) suspend the person from competing in the event for one or more days of the event
 - (c) suspend the person from competing in the event for the balance of the entire event
 - (d) suspend the person from future IRAUG events
 - (e) withdraw any or all awards, placings and records obtained by that person or that person's team, during the event
 - (f) ban the person from being involved in the event in any form whatsoever including being present at event Venues, and official functions of the event
 - (g) reprimand the person
 - (h) recommend to the person's University and / or sport governing body that a penalty or additional penalties be imposed by it
 - (i) any other penalty the Disciplinary Committee deems appropriate in all the circumstances.
- 7.2 In addition the person may be disciplined by the university, which they represent, and/or the matter may be referred to the Police (where appropriate/applicable).

The decision of the Disciplinary Committee is final and there is no recourse for appeal.
