

Indian Rim Asian University Games Privacy Policy

As at 27.06.07

1. Indian Rim Asian University Games Privacy Policy

- 1.1 This Policy is adopted by IRAUG Management as the guiding policy for all privacy issues relating to the Games and its operations.
- 1.2 IRAUG recognises that privacy is important and that individuals have a right to control their personal information. IRAUG acknowledges that providing personal information is an act of trust and IRAUG takes that seriously. Unless an individual gives IRAUG consent to act otherwise, the following Policy governs how IRAUG handles personal information of individuals.
- 1.3 IRAUG is committed to protecting personal information. IRAUG is also committed to complying with the private sector Australian National Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act (Cth) 1988

2. Collection of Personal Information

IRAUG will not collect personal information unless the information is necessary for one or more of its functions or activities. IRAUG will also only collect personal information by lawful and fair means and not in an unreasonably intrusive way.

At the time of collecting personal information, IRAUG will advise the individual of:

- (a) its name and contact details;
- (b) the fact that he or she is able to gain access to the information collected about the individual;
- (c) the purposes for which the information is collected;
- (d) other organisations to which IRAUG usually discloses information of that kind; and
- (e) the main consequences (if any) for the individual if all or part of the information is not provided.

3. Use and Disclosure

- 3.1 IRAUG will not use or disclose personal information about an individual for a purpose (the secondary purpose) other than the primary purpose of collection unless:
  - (a) both of the following apply:
    - (i) the secondary purpose is related to the primary purpose of collection and, if the personal information is sensitive information, directly related to the primary purpose of collection; and
    - (ii) the individual would reasonably expect IRAUG to use or disclose the information for the secondary purpose; or
  - (b) the individual has consented to the use or disclosure; or
  - (c) the information is not sensitive information and the use of the information is for the secondary purpose of Games and marketing communications.
  - (d) it is impracticable for IRAUG to seek the individual's consent before that particular use
  - (e) IRAUG reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary to lessen or prevent:
    - (i) a serious and imminent threat to an individual's life, health or safety; or
    - (ii) a serious threat to public health or public safety; or
  - (f) IRAUG has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, and uses or discloses the personal information as a necessary part of its investigation of the matter or in reporting its concerns to relevant persons or authorities; or
  - (g) the use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under law; or
  - (h) IRAUG reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for one or more of the following by or on behalf of an enforcement body:
    - (i) the prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution or punishment of criminal offences, breaches of a law imposing a penalty or sanction or breaches of a prescribed law;
    - (ii) the enforcement of laws relating to the confiscation of the proceeds of crime;
    - (iii) the protection of the public revenue;
    - (iv) the prevention, detection, investigation or remedying of seriously improper conduct or prescribed conduct;
    - (v) the preparation for, or conduct of, proceedings before any court or tribunal, or implementation of the orders of a court or tribunal.

4. Data Quality

- 4.1 IRAUG will take reasonable steps to make sure that the personal information it collects, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

5. Data Security

- 5.1 All information held by IRAUG Administration will be retained for future administrative and marketing purposes. However, IRAUG will take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify personal information that it no longer requires.

- 5.2 Similarly, any personal information that an individual requests be removed from IRAUG administrative records shall be immediately destroyed to a degree that there is no possibility of identification of the information and disposed of in a secure manner.
- 5.3 IRAUG will take reasonable steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

6. Access and Correction

- 6.1 IRAUG will provide individuals access to their personal information on request by the individual, except to the extent that:
- (a) providing access would pose a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of any individual; or
  - (b) providing access would have an unreasonable impact upon the privacy of other individuals; or
  - (c) the request for access is frivolous or vexatious; or
  - (d) the information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings between IRAUG and the individual, and the information would not be accessible by the process of discovery in those proceedings; or
  - (e) providing access would reveal the intentions of IRAUG in relation to negotiations with the individual in such a way as to prejudice those negotiations; or
  - (f) providing access would be unlawful; or
  - (g) providing access would be likely to prejudice an investigation of possible unlawful activity; or
  - (h) providing access would be likely to prejudice:
    - (i) the prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution or punishment of criminal offences, breaches of a law imposing a penalty or sanction or breaches of a prescribed law; or
    - (ii) the enforcement of laws relating to the confiscation of the proceeds of crime; or
    - (iii) the protection of the public revenue; or
    - (iv) the prevention, detection, investigation or remedying of seriously improper conduct or prescribed conduct; or
    - (v) the preparation for, or conduct of, proceedings before any court or tribunal, or implementation of its orders; by or on behalf of an enforcement body.

IRAUG may impose reasonable charges for providing access to personal information.

7. Transborder Data Flows

- a. IRAUG will only transfer personal information about an individual to someone who is in a foreign country if:
- (a) IRAUG reasonably believes that the recipient of the information is subject to a law, binding scheme or contract which effectively upholds principles for fair handling of the information that are substantially similar to the National Privacy Principles; or
  - (b) the individual consents to the transfer; or
  - (c) the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between individual and IRAUG, or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken in response to the individual's request; or
  - (d) the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the individual between IRAUG and a third party; or
  - (e) all of the following apply:
    - (i) the transfer is for the benefit of the individual;
    - (ii) it is impracticable to obtain the consent of the individual to that transfer;
    - (iii) if it were practicable to obtain such consent, the individual would be likely to give it; or
  - (f) IRAUG has taken reasonable steps to ensure that the information which it has transferred will not be held, used or disclosed by the recipient of the information inconsistently with the National Privacy Principles.

8. Complaints, Further Information and Future Changes

Any complaints in relation to the collection, use, disclosure, quality, security and access of your personal information, may be made to the IRAUG Administration offices on +61 0011 08 9383 9340.

IRAUG Management may amend this Policy from time to time where deemed necessary in order for the Policy to remain in a practical and workable position.
